TITLE: Student Conduct Code

RATIONALE: To provide a comprehensive Student Conduct Code complete with legal procedures for the adjudication of student misconduct.

POLICY STATEMENT

STATEMENT OF GENERAL PRINCIPALS

New River Community & Technical College’s Student Conduct Code seeks to promote the peaceful pursuit of intellectual and subsidiary activities under the auspices of the College and to ensure the safety of persons engaging in those pursuits. It further seeks to protect the free and peaceful expression of ideas and to assure the integrity of various academic processes.

It is expected that students will conduct their affairs with proper regard for the rights of others and of the College. All members of the College community share a responsibility for maintaining an environment where actions are guided by mutual respect, integrity and reason.

All members of the College are governed by College regulations, local ordinances, and state and federal laws. Individuals in violation of state and federal law are subject to prosecution by appropriate state and federal authorities regardless of whether the activity occurs on or off campus. In addition, the student may be subject to disciplinary action by the College pursuant to this Code. The severity of the imposed sanctions will be appropriate to the violation.

In seeking to encourage responsible attitudes, the College places much reliance upon personal example, counseling and admonition. In certain circumstances where these preferred means fail, it must rely upon the rules and procedures described in this Code. IN THE ENFORCEMENT OF THIS CODE, THE COLLEGE FUNCTIONS IN AN ADMINISTRATIVE MANNER.

The maximum period of such an interim suspension shall be five (5) working days. Imposition of an interim suspension shall not occur without a prior preliminary hearing unless it is impossible or unreasonably difficult to accord it prior to the interim suspension. 3. requests for appeals of suspension or expulsion actions by the conduct officer will automatically be granted by the committee.

D. Responsibilities of the Conduct Committee

1. After written notification from the officer, the chairperson of the committee shall, as soon as practicable:

of the proceedings of the committee hearing. In cases of appeal, the principals may have access to the tapes for purpose of review relating to the appeal. Such tapes shall be kept by the College until all appeal rights have been exhausted, at which time such tapes will be destroyed.

2. Composition of Committee

a. The committee shall consist of five (5) members: two (2) faculty members and one (1) alternate faculty member selected by the faculty; two (2) student members and one (1) alternate student member appointed by the student government association; and one (1) non-student affairs professional member and one (1) alternate professional staff member appointed by the College president. The College president will select one of the faculty members to serve as chairperson of the committee. The committee will select a vice-chairperson to serve in the absence of the chairperson. At least three (3) of the five (5) members must be present to hear a case.

b. The student charged with the violation, the officer, and the complaining witness, may have the right to challenge for cause any member of the committee by submitting to the committee chairperson a written memorandum stating the grounds for this challenge at least two (2) days prior to the scheduled meeting. Removal of members for cause shall be within the authority and at the discretion of the chairperson of the committee or the vice-chairperson if the chairperson is unable to exercise that function or is challenged for cause.

3. Hearing Preliminaries

a. At any preceding before the committee, the officer, the student, or other party to the hearing may have the assistance of an advisor. If the case involves suspension or dismissal the student may have legal counsel present. The student must inform the conduct officer at least 48 hours prior to the hearing whether an attorney will be present. Such assistance will be at the option of the student. That is, if the student chooses such assistance, the officer or Conduct Committee shall have the right to similar assistance. The role of legal counsel is explained in V.4.f.

b. The hearing shall be open except at the request of the accused student, the officer or the complainant. The committee chairperson may close the hearing in order to protect complaining witnesses or other parties.

c. If the student or the charging party (either the officer or a complaining witness) is not present at the time appointed for the hearing, the committee shall first attempt to determine the reason for that person's absence. The committee may proceed in a normal manner or may continue the hearing to a later date. The committee may not consider the absence of a party as relevant to whether the accused committed the alleged violation of the Code.

4. Hearing Procedures

a. Responsibility for recognizing and calling persons to speak rests with the chairperson.

b. Persons disruptive to any stage of the hearing may be evicted at the reasonable discretion of the chairperson.

c. The officer shall first present the results of the investigation and/or the charges against the student.

d. The officer and/or the complaining witness may present oral testimony and/or written statements from any person including the suspected student.

e. The student may then present written documentation or oral testimony from the student and/or other witnesses.

f. At any time during the proceedings, members of the conduct committee may question witnesses or parties to the proceeding; witnesses or parties may ask questions at the discretion of the chairperson. Legal counsel may serve in an advisory capacity to the accused student in such cases. Legal counsel or advisors may not speak on behalf of the student or otherwise participate directly in the proceedings.

g. After the presentation of all the evidence to the committee, each party may present arguments to the committee on the applicability of this Code or the interpretation of any sections herein. At this time, the officer and the student may make recommendations to the committee as to the appropriate sanctions should a violation(s) be found to have been committed.

h. During the hearing the committee may consider any relevant information, shall not be bound by the strict rules of legal evidence, and may take into account any information which is of value in determining the issues involved. Efforts will be made to obtain the most reliable information available.

i. After all parties present their respective information; the committee shall go into closed session to determine whether the student has committed the alleged violation and, if so, the sanctions to be imposed. A member should vote against the accused student only if convinced by a clear preponderance of the information presented that the accused student has committed the act(s) as charged. A majority vote of the committee members present and voting shall prevail. The committee chairperson is entitled to a vote.

j. Within three (3) days of the hearing the committee shall inform the student in writing of the decision through the officer. Any disciplinary sanctions imposed by the committee shall be operative immediately unless otherwise specified.

k. The notice to the student of the finding of the committee shall include:
   (1) the facts found to be true.
   (2) the section of this Code found to have been violated.
   (3) the disciplinary sanction imposed or other sanction to be taken.
   (4) the student's right to appeal and a statement of the expiration date for the filing of that appeal.

E. Right of Appeal Beyond Conduct Committee

In the event the committee approves a sanction of suspension or dismissal, the student may request review by the president or her/his designee. Such request for review must be made within five (5) working days of notification of imposition of sanction. The appeal shall be in writing and limited to:
1. review of the procedures followed.
2. appropriateness of the sanction. The president may not impose a more severe sanction. The decision of the president or her/his designee shall be the final campus decision and shall be communicated to the student in writing.

F. Right of Appeal Beyond the President

A student may appeal the sanction of dismissal to the Chair, NRCTC’s Board of Governors, pursuant to section 7.5 of NRCTC’s Board of Governor’s Policy No. 14, "Student Rights and Responsibilities." Information regarding this process may be obtained from the Dean for Student Services.
