Beginning Belly Dance Course
Offered at Three New River Campuses

[BECKLEY, WV] Release your inner goddess! New River Community and Technical College will offer a beginning course in Ancient Egyptian Belly Dance on three of its campuses this spring. Belly dancing is a great way to manage your weight, tone and firm while having fun. Even if you have had lessons in the past, you can join this class to refresh your memory, practice, or learn a new style.

Classes will be held on the Summersville Campus of New River on Tuesday evenings starting at 6 p.m., March 3-April 7. The Beckley Campus dance course will be Thursday evenings at 6:30 p.m., March 19-April 23. The Greenbrier Valley Campus in Lewisburg will host this fun six-week class on Wednesdays at 6 p.m. starting April 8 and ending May 13.

The class is taught by Sherry Davenport, a native of the Outer Banks of North Carolina. She began belly dancing seven years ago and wants to share the joy of this ancient dance with the women of West Virginia. She believes that dancing isn't simply a passion, it's the soul brought to life from the music, culture and dance moves. Davenport, along with her husband of 18 years, Mike, and 17 year old son, Jacob purchased a home in Richwood and are very excited about their new life in West Virginia.

This is a basic course for beginners of all ages. Call New River at (304) 872-4520 to register. Class size is limited and pre-registration is required.
