BLACK HISTORY MONTH WORKSHOP SET AT NEW RIVER GREENBRIER VALLEY CAMPUS

[LEWISBURG, WV] A veteran of the Civil Rights Movement who has settled in Friars Hill in Greenbrier County will lead a Black History Month Workshop at the New River Community and Technical College Greenbrier Valley Campus in Lewisburg, WV, on Wednesday, Feb. 25 at 2 p.m. The program is open to the public free of charge.

Steve Rutledge, who has been a leader in the annual Greenbrier Valley Martin Luther King Jr. Day March and Rally in Lewisburg for the past several years, will be leading the workshop which is being held as a part of New River’s observance of African American Heritage Month.

Rutledge is a retired public employee and active in the American Federal-State-County-Municipal Employees Union.

“We are very pleased to be able to offer a workshop with such great leadership as Mr. Rutledge will provide and to offer it to our students as well as the public,” notes Wanda Johnson, program coordinator with the Office of Student Services on the Greenbrier Valley Campus.

The program will be held in the Hollowell Auditorium on the first floor of Greenbrier Hall, the main office and classroom building for the GVC. The auditorium is handicapped accessible from the north entrance on the first floor.
