February 18, 2010

DR. CAROLYN BROWNING TO SPEAK AT NEW RIVER GVC’S BLACK HISTORY MONTH CONVOCATION FEB. 25

[LEWISBURG, WV] A special convocation for Black History Month will be held at the New River Community and Technical College Greenbrier Valley Campus on Thursday, Feb. 25, at 11 a.m. The program will feature Dr. Carolyn Browning, who will use “Let Me Take You There” as the theme for her talk.

The program will take place in Hollowell Auditorium on the first floor of Greenbrier Hall, 101 Church Street in Lewisburg, WV. It is open to the public free of charge. A question and answer program will follow the presentation.

An associate professor of Education at New River’s Beckley Campus, Dr. Browning was previously associated with Bluefield State College and is also well known in the Mercer-Tazewell county area for her Christian ministry.

The convocation is one of the multi-cultural programs open to the community on the New River GVC, according to Wanda Johnson, program coordinator and organizer of the Black History Month observance. For further information on this and other programs hosted by New River Community and Technical College, visit www.newriver.edu or telephone the New River GVC at 304-647-6560.

-end-

Photo Caption: Wanda Johnson, program coordinator on the Greenbrier Valley Campus of New River Community and Technical College, prepares a banner to promote Black History Month at the college.