NEW RIVER REPS VISIT AREA HIGH SCHOOL COLLEGE DAY PROGRAMS

Representatives of New River Community and Technical College are busy visiting area high schools as a part of the West Virginia High School College Day program arranged by the West Virginia Higher Education Commission.

During the College Day programs at the area high schools, members of both the junior and senior classes and their parents are invited to meet with college representatives to explore the curriculum, financial aid, admissions policies, costs, housing, extracurricular activities and other college related subjects.

Having already visited Greenbrier West, Greenbrier East, Pocahontas County, James Monroe High School, Summers County and the Mercer County College Day at Princeton, the representatives will be visiting McDowell County’s Mount View High School on Oct 1; Raleigh County’s College Day Oct. 2 at the Raleigh County Convention Center Armory; Oak Hill and Mount Hope, Oct. 19; Nicholas County, Oct 19; Midland Trail and Meadow Bridge, Oct. 20; Fayetteville Oct. 20; Webster County Oct. 21; Richwood Oct. 21; and Braxton County Oct. 22.

Meanwhile, students interested in gaining additional information on the courses of study offered at New River are encouraged to call 1-866-349-3739 to speak to a student recruiter, or visit www.newriver.edu. Students are also invited to visit the Beckley Campus in the Harper Industrial Park (304) ; the Raleigh County Campus at the Public Higher Education Center in Beaver; the Mercer County Campus at the Mercer County
Technical Center in Princeton; the Greenbrier Valley Campus at 101 Church Street in Lewisburg; and the Nicholas County Campus at 6101 Webster Road, Summersville.

New River is an accredited community and technical college serving a nine-county region in southeastern and south central West Virginia.

--30--

Photo Caption: Students at Greenbrier East High School are shown meeting with New River Community and Technical College representatives Wanda Johnson, (left) program coordinator from the Greenbrier Valley Campus, and Melanie Slone, student recruiter, during the College Day program.