New River Community and Technical College Launches Online "Introduction to Dreamweaver CS4" Course

Would you like to learn to use Adobe Dreamweaver CS4 to design, create, and maintain user-friendly websites that are full of professional-quality pages? New River Community and Technical College is pleased to announce the launch of "Introduction to Dreamweaver CS4," a noncredit online course being offered through New River’s partnership with ed2go.

No prior Web design skills or knowledge of code are required for this course. Students will start at the beginning, and through engaging lessons and hands-on exercises, they will build a sample site from the ground up.

"Introduction to Dreamweaver CS4." is part of New River's growing catalog of more than 300 instructor-facilitated online courses. Through well-crafted lessons, expert online instruction and interaction with fellow students, participants in these courses gain valuable knowledge at their convenience. They have the flexibility to study at their own pace combined with enough structure and support to complete the course. And they can access the classroom 24/7 from anywhere with an Internet connection.

New sessions of each course run every month. They last six weeks, with two new lessons being released weekly (for a total of 12). The courses are entirely Web-based with comprehensive lessons, quizzes, and assignments. A dedicated professional instructor facilitates every course; pacing learners, answering questions, giving feedback, and facilitating discussions.
