Nathan England Appointed Fine Arts Instructor at New River

G. Nathan England has been appointed instructor in the Fine Arts program at New River Community and Technical College. His appointment was announced by Dr. Harry R. Faulk, executive vice president and chief academic officer.

England coordinates the Fine Arts program on New River’s Greenbrier Valley Campus in Lewisburg, WV. New River is the only community and technical college in West Virginia to offer an associate’s degree in Fine Arts.

England began his career at New River as an adjunct instructor in 2004 and became a visiting instructor the following year. He teaches courses in photography, art history, digital imaging, visual art and fine arts.

A resident of White Sulphur Springs, England received a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree with a concentration in Photography from the Savannah College of Art and Design in 1999. He earned a Master of Fine Arts degree with a concentration in Painting and Mixed Media from the Memphis College of Art in 2004.
