NEW RIVER GVC SETS OPEN HOUSE FOR ADULT, NON TRADITIONAL STUDENTS

A special open house will be held on the New River Community and Technical College Greenbrier Valley Campus on Monday, Oct. 27, from 6-8 p.m. for adult and non-traditional prospective students.

“This is the time for any adult or non-traditional student who might be interested in attending classes or learning what is offered at New River to come to the Greenbrier Valley Campus and find out what we are all about,” says Donna Lewis of the Office of Student Services on the New River GVC.

“We welcome anyone -- prospective student, parents of prospective students, the curious, and even tourists,” Lewis added.

Assistance will be given in programs of study, opportunities for success, student assistance programs, financial aid, and admissions procedures. Self guided tours of the College’s campus will also be available , and it is a great opportunity to meet some current students who will be in the halls and Student Activities Center, Hollowell Auditorium, Student Assistance Center and the New River GVC Library between classes and in study sessions.
Earlier this week, the annual College Days Tour of regional high schools was completed by the staff of New River Community and Technical College Greenbrier Valley Campus.

High school students at Pocahontas County, Summers County, James Monroe, Meadow Bridge, Greenbrier West, and Greenbrier East had the opportunity to visit with New River representatives. Donna Feijo student services coordinator on the Beckley and Raleigh County Campuses, joined Wanda Johnson, program coordinator in the Office of Student Services on the New River Greenbrier Valley Campus, during the school visits.

“Any area high school student who did not have the opportunity to ask all the questions they had about New River is encouraged to visit the Greenbrier Valley Campus during the open house,” Lewis concluded.
