HYLTON APPOINTED DEAN OF NEW RIVER CTC
MERCER COUNTY CAMPUS

[BLUEFIELD, WV] James E. “Bo” Hylton has been appointed dean of the Mercer County Campus of New River Community and Technical College. An engineer by training, Hylton has more than 17 years of experience in community and technical college teaching and administration. His appointment was effective Nov. 17.

Hylton comes to New River from Bainbridge College in Georgia, where he served as chair of the Technical Studies Division and professor of electronic technology. He holds a bachelor’s degree in electrical engineering from West Virginia University and a master’s in mining engineering from Virginia Tech.

As campus dean, Hylton will coordinate with members of the president’s staff to provide effective leadership and management of the academic, human, financial and physical resources of the Mercer County Campus, which incorporates programs offered on the campus of Bluefield State College and a new Mechatronics Program in Princeton.

“We are very fortunate to find someone with Mr. Hylton’s extensive experience in both industrial technology and academic administration to provide leadership on the Mercer County campus, “stated Harry Faulk, vice president and chief academic officer.
New River Community and Technical College serves Fayette, Greenbrier, Mercer Monroe, Nicholas, Pocahontas, Raleigh, Summers, and Webster counties from locations in Beckley, Beaver, Greenbrier Valley (Lewisburg), Nicholas County (Summersville) and Mercer County (Bluefield and Princeton).
