Griffin, Garlow Join Staff at New River

[Beckley, WV] Steven Garlow has been named Information Systems Manager in the Information Technology Department at New River Community and Technical College. Garlow is based on the Beckley campus located at 167 Dye Drive. He reports to Dr. David Ayersman, New River’s Chief Information Officer.

Before coming to New River, Garlow was assistant director of information systems and system administrator at Raleigh General Hospital. He had previously been a technical support specialist at Web Creations and Graphics in Beckley and desktop support supervisor at Applied Card Systems in Beckley. He earned his regents bachelor of arts degree from Bluefield State College in 1993. He lives in Beckley.

Grace Griffin has been hired as administrative assistant for the Title III Grant Project headquartered at the Higher Education Center in Beaver. The Federal Title III grant supports an expansion of New River’s online learning and interactive video networking capabilities. Griffin will support Campus Dean and Title III Director Carolyn Sizemore in the administration of the grant.

Griffin has extensive experience as administrative assistant, most recently for the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education providing support services for the coordinator of the Gaining Early Awareness and Readiness for the Pennsylvania State Undergraduate Programs (GEAR UP) program. A resident of Daniels, she earned a bachelor’s degree in journalism from Marshall University. She also has an education degree in English from East Stroudsburg University of Pennsylvania.
New River Community and Technical College serves nine counties in southern and south central West Virginia from four campuses: Mercer County (Bluefield and Princeton), Nicholas County (Summersville), Beckley and Greenbrier Valley (Lewisburg). Administrative offices are located in Beckley.
