Pastels Workshop Offered At New River Community and Technical College

[Lewisburg, WV] Artist Rose Dobbins will teach a four-week workshop, “Pastels for Beginners,” beginning Monday, Sept. 14, at New River Community and Technical Center’s Jefferson Office Park location in Lewisburg, WV. The class will meet once a week from 6:30 – 9:30 pm.

Students will learn the types of pastels and different papers used with them and how to use photos for reference material. They will also receive tips on how to paint water and different types of eyes as part of the demonstrations and assigned exercises. A supply list will be provided the first night of class.

Dobbins is a professional artist specializing in pastel portraiture and oil painting. She is a member of Greenbrier Artists and has been juried in to Tamarack. To view her artwork, visit paintyouremory.com.

Cost for this class is $80 plus supplies. Class size is limited. Please pre-register by September 7. For more information or to register, please call New River at (304) 647-6570 or (304) 793-6101.
