March 16, 2009

NEW RIVER OBSERVES SPRING BREAK MARCH 23-28

During the break, offices on the campuses will be open to give an opportunity for prospective students and their parents to visit the campus, explore the various courses of study and classes offered and talk with college officials about everything from admission procedures to financial aid.

The New River Community and Technical College Library located on the Greenbrier Valley Campus will also be open for use by New River students and the general public. “We welcome the general public to use our research facilities, and we include students from our area who attend other colleges who may be home for their spring break,” notes Robert Coston, librarian.

The New River Library is open Monday through Friday during Spring Break from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

New River students will also have access to the computer laboratories on each of the campuses during the normal business day during the break. Classes for New River students resume Monday, March 30, at 8 a.m.

New River has locations in Beckley at 167 Dye Drive in the Harper Industrial Park; Beaver at the Public Higher Education Center; Bluefield at 219 Rock St; Lewisburg; at 101 Church Street, and Summersville at 6101 Webster Road. The college administrative offices are located at 221 George St., Beckley.

-end-