August 31, 2009

Judy Stennett

STENNETT PROMOTED TO ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR AT NEW RIVER

Judith K. Stennett has been promoted from assistant professor to associate professor of English at New River Community and Technical College. Announcement of the promotion was made by Dr. Harry R. Faulk, executive vice president and chief academic officer.

Stennett has been a full-time faculty member on New River’s Greenbrier Valley Campus for the past 11 years and was an adjunct faculty member for five years before joining the full-time faculty.
She is faculty advisory/mentor for the Student Government Association and was chosen as Faculty of the Year by the student body in 2004 and 2007. She was promoted from instructor to assistant professor in 2006 and was granted tenure in 2007.

This year, Stennett was asked to serve on West Virginia’s College Readiness Standard Setting Committee for English. She is listed in Who’s Who Among Teachers in America’s Colleges and Universities and is an honorary member of Phi Eta Sigma National Honorary Society. Her poetry was published in the 2005 anthology, Wild Sweet Notes II: More West Virginia Poets.

Stennett earned her bachelor’s degree in English from Concord College (now Concord University) and her master’s in English from Marshall University. She is currently completing her master’s degree in Psychology from North Central University in Prescott, AZ.

Stennett is married to Michael Rosolina, a teacher at White Sulphur Springs Elementary School. They live in Friars Hill, WV.

-end-