

New River Community and Technical College, with multiple campuses in southeast West Virginia, is seeking candidates for a part time clinical instructor position for our School of Practical Nursing – Clay County Cohort. 16 to 24 hours/week. RN with a minimum of 3 years of experience and one year direct patient care experience required. Responsibilities include: providing direct student supervision during clinical experiences in healthcare facilities located in the areas of Clay, Braxton, & Nicholas Counties. Student clinical performance evaluation; grading clinical written requirements; coordinating clinical experiences with classroom content and full time faculty. Cover letter including title of position, résumé, copies of college transcripts and contact information for three references must be submitted to: Joyce Egnor, phone (304) 883-2481, fax (304) 872-3587, or email jegnor@newriver.edu. Position will remain open until filled. All positions are subject to funding availability. EOE/AA Employer.